HELPING INJURED CLIENTS PUT THEIR LIVES BACK TOGETHER

With substantial experience in personal injury law, Gary A. Newland has been practicing law with his brother Stephen S. Newland for 25 years, protecting people and families. They have made a name for themselves as deeply knowledgeable, experienced and successful attorneys who are leaders in the legal community.

The firm has two divisions. Gary heads the personal injury side, including automobile and trucking accidents, construction injuries, product liability, food poisoning, medical malpractice, wrongful death and work injury. Steve focuses on estate planning, real estate, foreclosure defense and bankruptcy.

The firm's team of six attorneys share a passion for guiding clients through the legal process and securing justice for them. In the past 10 years alone, Gary has collected more than $50 million for injury clients, who benefit from his communication, honest advice, medical knowledge and vast understanding of the law and legal strategy.

Named to Super Lawyers, Gary A. Newland serves as a leader in the legal community. Among his many honors and achievements, he is the incoming president of the Northwest Suburban Bar Association and chair of its Civil Litigation Committee. He is admitted to the Federal Trial Bar, allowing him to try cases in federal court, and is an Illinois trial lawyer. Gary also teaches other attorneys how to effectively practice personal injury law.

Practicing from offices across Chicago and its collar counties, the Newland & Newland team offers clients the legal guidance and expertise they need to put their lives back together.
